TROX X-FANS GMBH

FANS AND VENTILATION COMPONENTS FOR TECHNICAL BUILDING SERVICES

We want our products to work for you. So we make sure you can contact our experts at our offices and in the field at any time for technical assistance and support.

From planning your plant right through to implementation – we can provide you with the right solution for every situation. Tailor-made and innovative, whether you need to ventilate or extract smoke from an underground car park or heat large buildings and industrial premises. Even if you need complex smoke extraction systems for special-purpose structures or especially efficient ventilation designs, you can still count on us.
